Description

Biedermeier-style coffee table, crafted from maple wood with a honey-colored, flamed grain. The rectangular top features two side drop-down flaps, which allow you to expand the surface area or reduce the table's footprint when not in use. The base consists of a fluted central sphere, lacquered in glossy black, resting on a short, turned base made of light-colored wood. The base, with a mixed-line profile, features four cantilevered legs with opposing volutes.
