Description

A refined and sculptural Italian Art Deco stool from the early 1920s, crafted in richly toned walnut and showcasing the elegant geometry and craftsmanship that defined the first wave of Italian Deco design. Compact yet expressive, it blends architectural lines with warm materials, resulting in a piece that feels both luxurious and understated. The stool features a distinctive silhouette with gracefully curved supports that rise to meet the cushioned seat, creating a balanced interplay of negative space and solid form. The walnut wood displays beautiful grain patterns and a deep, warm tone, enhanced but never overshadowed by the piece's sculptural structure. A rare and charming detail, the stool retains its original 1920s fabric, a textured textile in a soft, earthy tone. The upholstery shows minor signs of use, consistent with its age, and adds an authentic historical layer that collectors and design enthusiasts value. The walnut frame has been professionally refinished, bringing out the richness of the wood while preserving the integrity of the original craftsmanship. The result is a piece that feels fresh and refined, yet still unmistakably antique. Dimensions:
