Description

This magnificent rug, which has been thoroughly cleaned by our experts at the Galerie Lissier artisan workshop, is now ready to adorn your home. A magnificent and rare rug from the Aubusson Manufactory, crafted in the late 19th century in the true spirit of the 18th-century Empire style. This exceptional piece captivates with its expansive central design featuring a radiant rosette, adorned with a multitude of delicately woven floral motifs, framed by a rich border of elegant scrollwork, volutes, and imposing bouquets of flowers. Its refined color palette, composed of powdery shades of pink, cream, sky blue, and soft green, lends it a great sense of softness and timeless elegance. The design, of remarkable finesse, attests to the craftsmanship of the Aubusson workshops,
