Description

A unique and graceful coffee table with delicate lines, inspired by the sinuous forms of the 1950s. The base features two legs on one side and a single leg on the other; the legs taper slightly. All edges are rounded, organic, and fluid. The marble top echoes the kidney-shaped form of the base; its off-white veins with gray-brown inclusions flow elegantly across the top. Three recesses are carved into the underside, allowing the tabletop to rest securely and stably on the three legs. The table offers a different look from every angle while maintaining a serene and elegant appearance. A decorative brass band (7.0 cm high) runs along one of the legs. The stone is in perfect condition; the tabletop measures 32 cm wide at its narrowest point and up to 50 cm at its widest point on the opposite side. The surface of
