Description

A charming portrait of a young woman, painted in Limoges enamel on copper. A young woman in profile with long blonde hair, wearing a blue dress that reveals her shoulder. In very good condition. Original faux wood frame. Dated to the early 20th century. Shipping: 18 euros within France, 35 euros within the EU, and 100 euros to the rest of the world. Paul Bonnaud (1873-1953) was one of the leading Limoges enamel artists of the early 20th century. A gold medalist at the 1900 Paris World's Fair, he played an active role in the revival of Limoges enamel by incorporating into his compositions the fluid lines, stylized plant motifs, and contrasting colors characteristic of Art Nouveau. His body of work includes painted plaques, portraits of women, landscapes, jewelry, and sculptural pieces,
