

Léopold Oudry Editeur, Silver-plated Jewelry Box With Animal Motifs, 19th Century

380 EUR

Signature : Léopold Oudry (act. 1854-1882)

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Silver metal

Height : 9

Description

Charming jewelry box. Paris, circa 1860. Léopold Oudry Editeur (active 1854-1882). Silver-plated decorated with animal scenes, finely sculpted and chased on all sides in hunting-inspired bas-relief. Molded base resting on ball feet. Opens via a flap on top, revealing an interior upholstered in amethyst-colored satin. Signed in recessed letters "L. OUDRY EDITEUR" on the base. Height: 9 cm x W : 9 cm x D : 7 cm. Léopold Oudry Éditeur: In 1854, industrialist and chemist Léopold Oudry established an electrochemical workshop in Auteuil, at 10 Rue Cuissard (now Rue Félicien David). He succeeded in applying a durable copper plating to small parts; then, by modifying his process, he secured the contract for the electroplating of all cast-iron objects and monuments in the city of Paris, including several

Dealer

Galerie des Victoires

Antiques, Clocks, Furnitures

Mobile : 06 10 14 84 97

Sur rendez-vous et salons ou événements spécialisés

Paris 75002

fountains.