Description

Baroque mirror in carved and gilded wood, dating from the early 19th century, from Italy. The meticulously crafted frame features leaf and ribbon carvings at the center of all four sides, lending it a classic elegance typical of the period. The sides and the top molding are further embellished with carved appliqués, creating an effect of richness and opulence. The mirror, made using the traditional mercury technique, stands out for its distinctive patina, adding an authentic and historic touch to the piece. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and repolishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos. If certain details are not clear from the photos, the information provided in the description takes precedence.
