Description

Late 18th-century Italian trumeau, crafted from walnut and walnut burl, embellished with elegant maple inlays. The upper section features a central paneled door flanked by two drawers, while the base consists of a pair of drawers and a drop-down door that conceals an interior compartment with four small drawers. The interior is made of fir and poplar, ensuring sturdiness and durability. The cantilevered legs add a touch of stability and refinement, while the bronze knobs and vent grilles complete the look with a touch of elegance. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos.
