Description

A pair of 19th-century Italian columns, characterized by an elegant combination of fine materials. The base and capital are made of yellow breccia, lending a warm and inviting tone. The shafts of the columns are made of pink granite, providing sturdiness and a refined color contrast. One of the columns has a visible repair, the result of a previous break, but this does not compromise their stability or historical charm. These architectural elements are ideal for enhancing entryways, living rooms, or period gardens, blending seamlessly into classical or eclectic settings. Product Condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and re-polishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos.
