Description

A late 17th-century Baroque chest of drawers in walnut, from Lombardy. The design features a scalloped front with four drawers, accented by walnut burl inlays that extend harmoniously along the 45-degree-angled side posts and the sides. The cantilevered feet support the structure, while the ebony-stained moldings add a touch of elegance. The interior is made of fir, offering strength and durability. The handles and air vents are made of carved and gilded bronze, reflecting the attention to detail typical of the period. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and re-polishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully as possible through the photos.
