Description

Pair of Art Deco sheepdog bookends on marble, early 20th century. A blend of practicality and ingenuity, this pair of bookends dates from the Art Deco period (1910-1939), a landmark era in early 20th-century design. Art Deco is defined as a movement that blends sophisticated geometric forms centered on the theme of nature with noble materials, which is evident here in its black veined marble base with beveled edges, topped by a pair of patinated sheepdog figurines. The entire piece is absolutely fascinating, elegant, and chic. They are stable and sturdy, in very good overall condition, perfect for enhancing your bookshelf with an Art Deco touch! Fast and careful shipping to France, Europe, and worldwide. Dimensions per piece -> Height: 14 cm -> Length: 13.5 cm -> Depth: 8.5 cm -> Weight
