Description

Carved Jade Horse, China, 20th Century
Elegant Chinese jade sculpture depicting a horse, created in the 20th century and mounted on a custom-fit wooden base. The horse is depicted in a dynamic pose, with its head raised, one front leg lifted, and the reins held in its mouth. The mane, harness, and drapery carved on the back are finely crafted, giving the piece a beautiful sense of movement. The stone has a pleasing pale green hue, with natural shades and subtle variations that lend depth and character to the sculpture. The composition draws inspiration from traditional Chinese equestrian forms, particularly the Tang style, known for its powerful and expressive horses. A refined decorative piece, ideal for an Asian art collection, a library, an office, or a console table. Dimensions: 31 × 11 × 24
