Description

A charming French farmhouse table in solid pine, dating from the late 19th century. This piece embodies rustic authenticity with its warm honey-toned patina, developed through generations of use. The turned legs and single drawer with wooden knob highlight traditional craftsmanship, while the plank top bears the subtle marks and wear that tell its story; a surface rich with character and age.

Perfect as a kitchen or dining table, or as a work table in a country interior, it offers both practicality and timeless appeal. The table's proportions and simplicity make it versatile for modern rustic, wabi-sabi, or provincial settings.
