Description

Rare and elegant Bordeaux silver coffee pot in solid silver, standing on three hoof-shaped feet. The baluster-shaped body features an attractive pouring spout and a fluted base with a matte-ground finish.The lid is surmounted by a flower-shaped finial. Original side handle in brown wood.The piece is fully hallmarked (body and lid), bearing the Charge and Discharge marks for Bordeaux 1781-1789, the Jurande marks for Bordeaux 1785-1786 (date letter "H" stamped with the crowned B), as well as the hallmarks of the master silversmith Jean-Baptiste DARGEUIL, admitted to the guild in 1784.A rare and elegant Bordeaux coffee pot, in very good condition and bearing remarkably well-preserved hallmarks. Minor surface scratches consistent with age and use.An exceptional piece for the discerning
