Description

Oil on canvas created during the early period of Angelo Brombo's career, dating approximately to the 1920s. The signature, located at the bottom right, is typical of this period. Oil on canvas depicting two bragozzi sailing ships offshore, executed with the artist's unmistakable painting technique and characteristic luminous rendering. The work exhibits cracking consistent with the painting's age. Its overall condition is good. The total dimensions of the work are 70 × 100 cm. It is accompanied by a contemporary carved and gilded frame measuring 121 × 91 × 7 cm.
