Description

Pair of wall mirrors with gilded bronze sconces - Italy, late 19th century, Louis XV style A refined pair of wall-mounted mirrors in finely chiseled and gilded bronze, crafted in the Louis XV style with rich ornamentation featuring volutes, acanthus leaves, and a central shell motif. Each mirror is embellished with a pair of sinuous rocaille-style arms, designed for electric lighting; the mirrors display a pleasant, natural patina, a testament to the piece's age and authenticity. The set harmoniously combines decorative function with lighting, creating an effect of great elegance. Ideal for furnishing living rooms, entryways, bedrooms, or formal spaces, these wall sconces fit perfectly into both classical settings and eclectic interiors. Period: late 19th century Dimensions: 36.5 x 30 cm - depth 12 cm
