Description

Elegant chest of drawers in finely carved solid walnut with fruitwood inlays. The chest of drawers features linear forms and a curved top. The richness of this piece is enhanced by the inlays on the front, sides, and top, featuring mainly interwoven plant motifs, vases with flowers on the sides, and a pair of birds in the center of the top. The chest of drawers also features four drawers, opened with lost-wax cast bronze handles, ergonomically designed for storage. This is a piece of furniture of great taste and craftsmanship, capable of adding a touch of class and antique appeal to any space. Made in Piedmont in the Louis XV period, around the mid-18th century. Dimensions: H x W x D 96 x 132 x 55cm
