Description

An elegant lidded soup tureen made of white porcelain by the French manufacturer Lourioux, resting on a small pedestal. It is adorned with two side handles featuring intricate decoration and a matching lid handle, all accented by a fine gold trim. Its curved, Louis XV-inspired lines make it a beautiful display piece, as decorative as it is functional. In good overall condition, with no chips or cracks. The gilding shows slight signs of wear from use. Shipping within mainland France: EUR40. Contact us for more information.
