

Tablecloth And Twelve "l D" Napkins With Damask And Openwork Patterns, Art Nouveau Style.

120 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Linen

Description

A beautiful set consisting of a tablecloth and twelve napkins. Made of pure white cotton fabric of very high quality. Napkins of nearly modern size, featuring a beautiful, particularly prominent "l D" monogram embellished with plumetis; these napkins are very slightly openwork along the borders, which feature ribbon motifs. The clearly visible damask pattern features beautiful bouquets of peonies, delicate garlands of bay leaves, and a slightly raised motif in the center. The double monogram on the tablecloth allows you to arrange dishes on the table without obscuring them. Made in the 1900s. Please note: this set is in very good condition. Despite the care taken in cleaning our antique linens, a few tiny stains and/or rings may remain. Please take a close look at the photos. Dimensions of
