Description

Bouillotte, gilded bronze table lamp with painted sheet metal shade - early 1900s Elegant gilded bronze table lamp, inspired by French Empire-style designs. Particularly appreciated for its compact size--smaller than commonly available models--this lamp is an ideal solution for nightstands, writing desks, console tables, or small side tables, without sacrificing the elegance and dramatic presence of Empire-style lamps. The circular, finely turned base supports three electrified candle holders with faux candles that evoke the appearance of antique wax candles, creating a refined, dramatic effect. The lamp is complemented by an original lampshade made of dark green painted sheet metal, embellished with a delicate gold border featuring a floral motif and gold trim; the shade is height-adjustable via a central column, allowing you to raise or lower the light as needed. The upper ring handle makes it easy to move, enhances its elegance, and evokes 19th-century neoclassical designs. With great decorative charm, it is an ideal addition to a study, library, living room, or bedroom furnished in a classic style, capable of creating a warm and refined atmosphere. Originally designed for the card game "bouillotte," these lamps have become a classic decorative lighting fixture. Period: early 20th century Dimensions: height 32 cm - base diameter 16.5 cm - shade diameter 21.5 cm Origin: France Materials: gilded bronze, painted sheet metal shade Lighting: 3 light points Condition: excellent condition, with slight signs of wear consistent with its age. The gilding is well-preserved, and the original lampshade shows normal wear. The electrical system is functional, but we recommend having it inspected by a qualified technician before use. An elegant French-style lamp that will enhance any room with the understated sophistication of the Empire style.
