Description

A pair of ewers made of cut crystal with solid silver mounts, bearing the Minerve hallmark (950/1000) and the hallmark of the prestigious silversmith Tétard Frères at 4 rue Béranger in Paris. This firm was among the most sought-after of the 19th century and the Belle Époque, receiving commissions from royal and princely courts around the world, as well as from the upper middle class of the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Our ewers feature a body made of blown and cut crystal with ribs and facets, embellished with foliage motifs. Their mountings are inspired by the Louis XVI and Rocaille styles, which were very much in vogue at the time, combining laurel, acanthus, and olive leaves with fluting, gadroons, and sweeping handles. Gross weight for the pair: 1,681 grams. Good condition,
