Description

This portrait depicts a cardinal. It is beautifully executed with a lovely brushstroke. The painting is unsigned, but you will notice the beautiful brushwork. The technique is unique: part of the panel is painted, while another part has been left unpainted, making the subject stand out. The overall condition is very good. Please note some signs of wear and scuffing on the natural wood frame. For details on the condition, please refer to the photos. The photos are an integral part of the description.
