

Educational Herbarium Of Useful Plants, Italy, Early 1900s.

250 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : En l'etat

Description

A herbarium created by an Italian company in the early 1900s, consisting of 50 plants considered useful. It is housed in its original box and comes with an index of names. The plates are protected by tissue paper and labeled with their names and uses. It includes some "unusual" plants such as wormwood, Indian hemp, datura, etc. There are minor missing specimens, as is typical in antique herbariums. Rare and interesting.
