

Louis XV Jam Maker

490 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Solid wood

Length : 90

Height : 127

Depth : 63

Description

jam cabinet or small, low sideboard. A country-style piece from the southwest, typical of farms and middle-class kitchens. It was used to store jams, linens, or dishes. Today, it is highly sought after as an accent piece, an XXL nightstand, or a small bar. Delivery available in Europe--please contact us

Dealer

Le grenier de la cassine
Antiquités

Mobile : 0651107452

173 Route de Saint-Ciers
Val-de-Livenne 33820