Description

This charming mid-century oil on canvas presents a whimsical abstract floral landscape, combining stylised botanical forms with decorative geometric motifs in a joyful modernist composition. Three vividly coloured flowers rise from rolling bands of green beneath a lavender horizon, while an imaginative tiered floral structure floats above, creating a dreamlike sense of balance and rhythm. The harmonious palette of lilac, turquoise, ochre, crimson and emerald, together with the simplified forms and playful line work, recalls the poetic abstraction of Paul Klee, while also showing affinities with the decorative modernism of Joan Miró and the stylised Scandinavian aesthetic of Stig Lindberg. Rich surface texture and confident brushwork enhance its handcrafted character, making it a
