Description

Set of 10 Art Deco Dining Room Chairs in solid beech wood staining in a dark red mahogany or macassar color tone and high-gloss lacquered. Fully reupholstered and covered in cream-white Alcantara leather with single welt.

Very good seating comfort due to large seat cushion and upholstered, slightly laid back and curved backrest.

The dining chairs were originally part of a dining room set in Macassar ebony made by ,Georges & Gaston Guerin' in Paris in the 1930s. The sideboard of the dining room is signed and also available for sale by us (AD-SB-403) as well as a smaller display cabinet (AD-SB-404).

Six chairs are original off the period around 1930 and 4 chairs have been reproduced sometime later. After the restoration, there is from the outside no differentiation of the original and the art deco style ones. The quality is equal.

Fully restored, refinished and reupholstered condition.
