Description

Large antique Mediterranean terracotta jar - 120 cm tall
An impressive antique terracotta jar, oval in shape, featuring two side handles and a wide, flared neck. This piece captivates with its magnificent natural patina, developed over decades, featuring warm shades of ochre, brown, and slightly greenish hues that attest to its authenticity. Standing 120 cm tall, this jar has a remarkable presence. Originally used to store water, wine, olive oil, or grains in the Mediterranean region, it now serves as a superb decorative piece for a garden, a patio, a charming home, or a Mediterranean-style interior. Its handcrafted construction, firing irregularities, and natural signs of aging give it all the charm of great antique terracotta pieces. Condition: good overall condition, beautiful original patina, signs
