Description

This shuttle-shaped corozo snuffbox is the work of a sailor or convict; it dates from the late 18th to early 19th century. It features musical motifs on the front, while the back is adorned with a floral design--all finely crafted. The left side has been intentionally left in a rustic state, and it features a metal hinge. It is a beautiful object representative of folk art or shipboard craftsmanship. Our photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the item. For details on its condition, please examine the photos closely. Feel free to zoom in. The photos are an integral part of the description.
