Description

A rare pair of German pitchers from the early 20th century, attributed to Richard Riemerschmid and produced by the F. & R. Fischer factory in Göppingen around 1914. These are rare, decorative antique pieces. Spherical design with hinged lids and wrapped handles. Both pieces bear a hallmark beneath the base, visible in the photo. These pitchers are in good overall condition considering their age. Please note that there are dents and small marks in places, as well as signs of wear due to age and use, visible in the photos. Note that the handle coverings are partially worn. Approximate dimensions: Height: 21.5 cm Width: 14 cm Base diameter: 8 cm Lid diameter: 8.5 cm MX73
