Description

Antique dangling earrings, 18-karat gold, set with diamonds, France, circa 1890, historicist style. We are offering for sale a magnificent pair of refined dangling earrings in 18-karat gold, adorned with a dazzling arrangement of 14 diamond roses. These earrings captivate with their richly detailed circular medallion design, adorned at its center with a star-shaped relief motif and delicate engravings. The star-shaped motif is characteristic of the period between 1860 and 1890. The earrings measure approximately 4 cm in length and weigh a total of 3.05 grams. The clasps feature the highly sought-after historical fastening method: the fixed hooks are simply slipped through the earlobe from the front and securely fastened at the back into the retaining hooks provided for this purpose.
