Description

A very rare 18-karat gold "Porte Louis d'Or," late 19th-early 20th century. All components are hallmarked. The trays and the body are hallmarked with the head of a Greek physician (1838-1919); only the bail is hallmarked with an eagle's head. There are a few small dents to note. It closes properly, but once closed, the parts do not fit together perfectly. The trays come in two sizes to hold 10- and 20-franc gold coins. Weight: 42.90 g Dimensions: length 7 cm including the loop Box dimensions (box only): 5 x 3 cm Secure shipping with insurance for France: 150 EUR
