

Hollow Terracotta Female Head - Hellenistic Or Roman Tradition; Requires Further Study

420 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Terracotta

Width : 7 cm

Height : 10 cm

Description

A beautiful hollow terracotta female head, depicting a face with simple, harmonious features, framed by a hairstyle composed of broad, wavy strands. Created using a casting technique with hand-finished details, this small sculpture features a beautiful antique patina, traces of burial, and signs of wear consistent with its age. The base is open, a feature frequently found in ancient hollow terracotta works. Similar objects are offered as votive heads or fragments of statuettes in collections and on the specialized market. The style evokes works of the Hellenistic tradition found throughout the Mediterranean basin. In the absence of scientific analysis, the attribution and dating are offered with caution. Characteristics: Material: terracotta. Technique: cast, hollow, with hand-finished details. Height:

Dealer

Antiquités Côte Bleue

Antiquaire généraliste

Mobile : 0672947676

18 route bleue

Carry-le-Rouet 13620

8.5 cm. Width: 5 cm. Weight: 280 g. Condition: well-preserved, with age-related wear and small chips, no visible restoration. Proposed dating: Work in the Hellenistic or Roman tradition; period to be determined. Provenance: Former private collection. This piece is an interesting collectible for enthusiasts of archaeology and ancient terracotta. For any questions, call +33778337598