Description

A large bronze sculpture by Émile François Rousseau, born in 1853, depicting a young woman in an Orientalist style in a graceful and sensual pose. Standing with her wrists bound above her head, she is clad in a light drape held at the waist by a chiseled belt, while an ornamental necklace accentuates her bust. Her delicately tilted face and flowing hair reinforce her expression of gentleness and resignation. The sculpture rests on a circular base. Signed "E. Rousseau" on the pedestal. Very beautiful dark brown patina. Height 68 cm, weight 14 kg. Payment via PayPal, bank transfer, check, or credit card.
