Description

Jean Crotti was a Swiss-born painter and lithographer who became a naturalized French citizen in 1927. Through his marriage to Suzanne Duchamp in 1919, he was the brother-in-law of Jacques Villon, Marcel Duchamp, and Raymond Duchamp-Villon. He moved to Paris in 1902 and set up a small studio on Rue Pierre-Fontaine. The work is signed in the lower right corner, likely around 1905; it is therefore possible that this portrait depicts Yvonne Chastel, his first wife, whom he divorced to marry Suzanne Duchamp.
