Description

A magnificent pair of Belgian oak wardrobes from the 20th century. Crafted from solid oak, these wardrobes feature charming heart-shaped cutouts on the doors, a detail characteristic of traditional Belgian furniture. Each cabinet offers a practical interior combining hanging space and shelves. One of them still has a mirror attached to the outside. The warm hue of the oak and the harmonious patterns make this set a rare and highly decorative piece, suitable for both classic and contemporary interiors. The wardrobes are in good antique condition, showing normal signs of use and wear for their age. Please examine the photographs carefully, as they are an integral part of the description.
