Description

A magnificent Amsterdam School-style side table, strongly influenced by Art Deco, crafted from solid oak around 1920. Its circular top features a striking eight-pointed star motif, framed by a finely carved beaded edge. Resting on four sturdy oak legs and featuring a practical circular lower shelf, this table is both decorative and functional. Its bold geometric design and warm oak patina make it a timeless piece, ideal as a side table, pedestal table, or coffee table. Dimensions Diameter: 69 cm Height: 61 cm Material Solid oak Origin Country Period Circa 1920 Condition Very good condition for an antique, with signs of wear consistent with its age. Structurally sound and sturdy. A few small fragments of the carved beaded edge are missing, as shown in the photos.
