Description

A magnificent and highly functional solid oak notary's cabinet dating from the 1930s. Originally designed for professional offices and notary practices, this impressive piece combines exceptional storage capacity with timeless Dutch craftsmanship. The upper section features an original revolving door with its original key. Behind this door are 16 sliding archive shelves and 2 sliding drawers made of solid oak, providing a particularly practical filing system. Below the filing trays is a sliding writing surface, while the lower section features two doors concealing a spacious shelf for additional storage. Crafted from solid oak with a beautiful, warm patina, this piece is ideal for a home office, library, study, commercial space, or designer's studio. Dimensions Height: 200 cm Width: 100
