

Adjustable Daybed For The Disabled, Carters Of London, England, Early 20th Century

3 450 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Length : 222

Width : 80

Height : 110

Description

An exceptional and rare reclining bed, designed for people with limited mobility and featuring an adjustment system, by Carters (J. & A.) Ltd., a renowned London firm specializing in high-end medical and hospital furniture from the late Victorian and early Edwardian periods. This elegant recliner features its original mahogany frame, mounted on brass casters, and is equipped with its original crank mechanism, allowing for independent adjustment of the backrest and leg rest for optimal comfort. The original manufacturer's plate is still present, attesting to its authenticity. This daybed retains its charming tartan upholstery adorned with decorative tassels, making it an ideal centerpiece for a classic interior, a library, a living room, a boutique hotel, or a luxury boutique. Dimensions Width: 80

Dealer

Bridgeman Antiques

Antiques

Mobile : +31621400512

Molenstraat 120

Apeldoorn 7321

cmLength (unfolded): 222 cmHeight (upright):

110 cmHeight (unfolded): 55

cmFeaturesManufactured by Carters (J. & A.)

Ltd., LondonEarly 20th centuryOriginal

manufacturer's plateSolid mahogany

frameBackrest andOriginal crank

mechanismMounted on brass castersOriginal

upholstered cushions with decorative tasselsA

magnificent collector's piece, both decorative and functionalConditionPresented in good antique

condition, with age-related wear, slight marks, and signs of use consistent with its age. The adjustment mechanism works perfectly. Please examine the photographs carefully, as they are an integral part of the description.