

An Eggshell Cup And Saucer Decorated With A European--china 18th, Qianlong Period

2 200 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 11,4cm

Height : 4cm

Description

A Famille Rose eggshell porcelain cup and saucer, decorated with a Dutchman smoking a pipe and a half-naked crouching man. China 18th Qianlong period (1736-1795) Height: 4 cm Diameter: 11.4 cm For a saucer with identical decoration, see:- La porcelaine des Compagnies des Indes à décor occidental, F. & N. Hervouët, Y. Bruneau, 1986, p.101, fig.4.63.- Porcelaine de Chine à décor occidental provenant principalement de la collection de M. et Mme. F. Hervouët, Morlaix, 27 March 1989, lot 35. For an identical cup and saucer, see:- From East to West: The Quest for Chinese Export Porcelain with Western Themes (1695-1815), Filomena Cunha Alves, Paulo Cunha Alves, 2016, p.85, fig.41. Provenance:- Private English collection An hairline on the cup, and significant wear to the

Dealer

Galerie Drake

Chinese Porcelain & Chinese Works of Art

Mobile : 0689483023

Paris 75011

enamel on the cup. A tiny hairline along the rim of the saucer, and a non-going through scratch in the glaze. More information and photos available upon request.