Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Width : 150 cm

Height : 280 cm

Description

A pair of grand curtains, typical of mansions or castles, dating from the late 19th to early 20th century, designed to adorn windows or doors in reception rooms. Rare dimensions and design: 280 cm x 150 cm per panel. Motifs featuring historical figures, horsemen, and gentlemen, along with figurative medallions depicting the profile of a king or nobleman from the Renaissance period, likely inspired by depictions of King Henry II (King of France from 1547 to 1556) or of "St Georges terrassant le dragon". The condition is good, both for the canvas and the quality of the Richelieu embroidery. One panel appears lighter in color, more faded than the other.
