Description

A chalice and paten made of gilded silver. The chalice rests on a circular, stepped base edged with fillets. The base is engraved with drooping lanceolate leaves, alternating with guilloché-patterned leaves reminiscent of aquatic plants. The tubular shaft is adorned with a collar and a torus-shaped knot accented by broad leaves and small flowers. The bowl, slightly conical in shape with a straight rim, is set within a cut-out false bowl featuring the same ornamentation as the base's rim. French work, circa 1900. The base is weighted. Hallmarks Minerva 950/1000 on the bowl and on the rim of the base. Silversmith's mark: Louis Gilles & Cie (1882-1927). Chalice: Height: 21 cm Base diameter: 12 cm Gross weight: 268 g Paten: Made of 950/1000 silver, Minerve hallmark. It is
