Description

Second Large Embroidered Silk Velvet Cushion - 19th Century (an identical second one is for sale in my gallery) Crafted from a remarkable fragment of 19th-century embroidered silk velvet, this very large cushion showcases the elegance of antique decorative textiles. The sumptuous embroidery, executed in silk threads in delicate shades of green, gold, cream, and powder pink, features a design of stylized scrolls, foliage, and fruit of great finesse. The velvet, a deep ruby red with iridescent sheen, offers an incomparable luster and highlights the rich texture of the embroidery. Each cushion has been handcrafted to preserve the full beauty of this antique fabric. The back is made of a solid-colored silk that harmoniously complements the front. A discreet zipper allows for easy removal of the filling--which is entirely new and made of sturdy white canvas--ensuring generous support and exceptional comfort. With its spectacular dimensions, this cushion becomes a true decorative statement piece, equally elegant on a sofa, at the foot of a bed, or on a chaise longue. It instantly adds a touch of refinement to any classic, contemporary, or eclectic interior. Two identical cushions, crafted from the same antique embroidered velvet, are available separately.

They can be displayed together to create a particularly prestigious set. Dimensions: 88 cm × 56 cm Thickness: approximately 21 cm In very good condition. Recently crafted from an authentic 19th-century antique fabric. ref 030826
