Description

Pair of paintings: Le Gros Chagrin and Le Colin-Maillard Oil on canvas, signed A beautiful pair of genre scenes by the famous French painter Camille Léopold Cabaillet-Lassalle, illustrating with great finesse the world of childhood, the artist's favorite subject. Le Gros Chagrin depicts a touching scene in which a young woman comforts a crying little girl, surrounded by two other children who have come to share this emotional moment. The tenderness of the poses, the delicacy of the expressions, and the warm light bathing the interior attest to Cabaillet-Lassalle's talent for capturing the most sincere emotions of family life. Le Colin-Maillard depicts a group of children engrossed in the famous traditional game. A blindfolded boy tries to catch his friends while a little dog playfully livens up the scene. The movement of the figures, the spontaneity of their gestures, and the convivial atmosphere perfectly illustrate the carefree joy of childhood. Through these two complementary works, the artist subtly contrasts two facets of childhood: emotion and play. They reveal Cabaillet-Lassalle's mastery in the art of telling a story through gesture, gaze, and composition. 19th century.
