Description

19th-Century French School - Landscape Along the Banks of the SeineA superb and elegant 19th-century oil painting depicting a bucolic riverside landscape, titled on the back "Au bord de la Seine de La Roche-Guyon."The composition depicts the iconic banks of the Seine in the Val-d'Oise and the French Vexin regions, favored by many master landscape painters: in the foreground, a rural scene with figures, a stone house, and livestock drinking at the water's edge, flanked by tall poplar trees. The background hints at the region's characteristic chalk cliffs beneath a luminous sky.Dimensions:- 60x43 (with frame)- 42x24 (without frame)
