Description

Curiosa: An Erotic Pamphlet by Théodore Hannon. "Thirteen Sonnets with a Finger Inside," 1882. Paperback. The unadorned cover serves as a fitting introduction to this work, which may shock some readers, as the sonnets are extremely explicit! The playful tone--Monsieur de la Braguette, Domremy the Maiden, At the Convent of the Hardworking Fleas--adds to the humor.... The printing, 69 copies, is meticulous, and each sonnet is framed by a red border and printed in green or blue. Théodore Hannon was a Belgian artist highly regarded in his time, a friend of Félicien Rops and Huismans, and a recipient of the Palmes Académiques! These erotic sonnets were appreciated by literary circles, including Colette. Rare, in beautiful overall condition, complete.
