Description

A superb set of four Louis XV-Louis XVI-era paintings on authentic Cordoba leather, mounted on canvas sometime during the 20th century and mounted on stretchers with keys. Their frames, featuring gold-leaf-gilded moldings typical of the 18th century, enhance these collector's pieces but are from a later period. These works combine historical elegance and artisanal craftsmanship, perfect for lovers of antique art, collectors, or classic interiors. Dimensions:- 2 large paintings: 88 cm × 53.5 cm- 2 small paintings: 53.5 cm × 65 cm(Ideal size for a symmetrical arrangement or display in a series.)Condition:- Cordoba leather in generally good condition (normal wear and tear for the period).- One of the small paintings (depicting a cupid) has small flakes of paint that tend to fall off. - Sturdy canvas and stretcher
