Description

The Man with the Broad Back Adorned with a Row of Buttons From the Gobbi Series, circa 1622A beautiful and rare antique etching by Jacques Callot, depicting "The Man with the Broad Back Adorned with a Row of Buttons" from the Gobbi series, engraved around 1622. Probably an early 17th-century print of very fine quality, with exquisite linework and a well-defined intaglio, characteristics typical of fine early prints. Early paper mounted on a period mat. In very fine overall condition, with good margins. An iconic work by the Lorraine master Jacques Callot, a leading figure in 17th-century European engraving. Reference: Lieure 424 (The Man with the Thick Back Adorned with a Row of Buttons). Dimensions of the intaglio:

approximately 6.5 × 8.5 cm
