Description

Pair of Napoleon III-era pedestal columns, in Boulle marquetry - 19th century An impressive pair of Napoleon III-era column pedestals, crafted from blackened wood and adorned with sumptuous Boulle marquetry combining tortoiseshell and brass inlays. Each pedestal is richly decorated with finely chiseled gilded bronze, featuring caryatids, mascarons, floral motifs, and relief ornamentation, reflecting the refinement and excellence of 19th-century French cabinetmaking. These prestigious pedestals are designed to showcase sculptures, vases, or any other work of art. With their elegance, rich decoration, and high-quality craftsmanship, they serve as a centerpiece for a classical interior or an exceptional collection.
