Description

Stunning Japanese vase, signed on the back. The base is shaped like a ship's prow with waves, and the upper half is adorned with a lively scene of four figures in high relief. Above, a glazed section in black and purple bands. On the back, a slightly raised design of rocks, trees, and pagodas. Below, a slightly raised cartouche with the signature. In perfect condition except, perhaps, for a chip on the headdress of the figure in green. Meiji period. Height: 34 cm Width at the neck: 13 cm Depth at the base: 10 cm
