Description

A beautiful watercolor on paper signed by Louis Chareyre, a 20th-century French artist particularly renowned for his deep connection to the Limousin region. He spent much of his life sketching landscapes, village scenes, and local traditions. A peaceful atmosphere emerges from his work. His brushwork is often quick, highly illustrative, and beautifully captures the bustle of a street or the atmosphere of a landscape. While his roots are deeply French, he also traveled extensively! Very beautiful Orientalist watercolors by him regularly appear on the market, brought back from his trips to Morocco. Signed in the lower left corner.
